Re: Business Enterprise Program recruiting for 2016 training class
Date: February 29, 2016

The Indiana Business Enterprise Program (BEP), in conjunction with Vocational Rehabilitation Services (VR), is recruiting interested candidates for 2016 BEP training class. As part of the Randolph-Sheppard Act, BEP provides individuals who are blind or visually impaired with access to rewarding and profitable entrepreneurial ventures broadening their economic opportunities.

BEP Licensed Managers manage contracts across Indiana in a variety of food-service locations, including cafeterias, coffee shops and vending machine locations. Interested candidates will participate in an extensive training class specifically designed to prepare them for business management within the BEP.

Interested candidates may fill out the candidates form on the Business Enterprise Program webpage available by clicking here, emailing bvis@fssa.in.gov or calling 1-877-241-8144. Additional information on the program including a Guide to BEP for Potential Candidates and Frequently Asked Questions documents are available here.
